

Top view shows the area in constant illumination. This is what is viewed with an intensified camera with IR illumination support. There are lots of dark areas in the field of view

Bottom view same area in a Gen. 2 image intensifier view. The lights from sky and some side located lamps tune down sensitivity where it is needed. This can hide a large group of invisible intruders.

